Helpisontheway set the track record for sophomore trotting colts with a time of 1:52.2.

Helpisontheway is a colt by Chapter Seven. Trained by Linda Toscano for owners Camelot Stable Inc., The Bay's Stable, and Little E, it was his second win in 2018 and career win number three.

The $40,600 second division of the NYSS went to Voss Volo (Corey Callahan).

Yuge (Scott Zeron) led the pack into a first quarter of :27.2. Cruising In Style (Anthony MacDonald) took over and led to a half in :56.3. Voss Volo ($9.50) went to work in the backstretch, rushing by to take over before hitting three-quarters in 1:24.4. Owned by Pinske Stables and William Wiswell, while trained by John Butenschoen, he would just cruise in the stretch to win in 1:53.4. On The Ropes (Ake Svanstedt) came up to finish second. Seven Iron (Tim Tetrick) was third.

Voss Volo is a gelding by Credit Winner. He won for the first time this year and secured career win number two.

The Veteran (Tim Tetrick) easily won the $39,900 third division of the NYSS.

The Veteran ($3.00) went gate-to-wire, putting up all the numbers (:29, :57.4, 1:26, 1:54.1). Owned by Bill Donovan, Stephen Michaels, Jim Winske and trainer George Ducharme, the colt never had an anxious moment. Southwind Chrome (Scott Zeron) was second best. Fashion Forever (Corey Callahan) finished third.

The Veteran is a colt by Muscle Mass. It was his third win of the season and it was career victory number five.

Tioga Downs returns to live action with a 13-race card on Saturday starting at 6:15 p.m. For more information go to www.tiogadowns.com.
